

Required Information For Electronic Filing - Complete All 4 Sections Below

Per North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner

Section 1: Federal Information Needed for North Dakota Return

If you received a form W-2, 1099-R, W-2G, 1099-G, or 1099-MISC that has North Dakota Withholding on it, you are required to enter specific information for each of the forms received. You must enter the information exactly as it appears on the form. If you have multiple forms, use the Add button to enter information from each form separately.

Example: If you received two Forms W-2, click the "Add" button next to the Form W-2 and enter the information for your first Form W-2. After completing the first Form W-2, select the Add button again and enter the information for the second Form W-2. Repeat this for each of the types of forms listed below that you received.

Form W-2 Wage & Tax Statement ►
Form 1099-R Distributions from Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc. ►
Form W-2G Certain Gambling Winnings ►
Form 1099-G Certain Government Payments ►
Form 1099-MISC Miscellaneous Income ►
Check the box if you do not have any of the above forms ►

Section 2: Verifying Your Identity

IMPORTANT: Identifying information from your North Dakota return

Enter your 2012 North Dakota taxable income (Form ND-1, line 18). The North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner uses this information to verify your identity. This information must match what they have in their records, so don't guess. Do not use amounts from an amended 2012 North Dakota tax return. The 2012 taxable income must come from your originally filed tax return.

Note: If you are married filing joint, and you filed together in 2012, enter the same amount in the taxpayer and spouse columns.
