SCHOOL PROFILE 2012-2013

Saint Peter's Prep was founded in 1872 by the Society of Jesus. Prep enrolls 922 boys from more than 120 communities, representing 13 New Jersey and 5 New York counties, 4 states, and 4 countries. Approximately 64% of Prep's students identify themselves as Caucasian, 12% as Hispanic, 9% as Asian, 9% as African-American, and 6% as "Multiracial."

Saint Peter's Prep is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the New Jersey Department of Education and is a member of the Jesuit Secondary Education Association, National Catholic Education Association, National Association of College Admissions Counselors, and Jesuit High School College Counselors Association. Located in the historic Paulus Hook section of Jersey City, a thriving financial center and residential community on the Hudson River waterfront, Prep is well-served by major transportation systems, including NJ Transit, the PATH and Hudson Bergen Light Rail, as well as several ferries and public and private bus lines.

Mission Statement: Saint Peter's Prep is a Catholic, Jesuit college preparatory school which seeks to form young men of competence, conscience and compassion. Both enriched and challenged by its diversity, Saint Peter's Prep is a community of learners seeking to find God in all things. The academic, athletic, co-curricular, spiritual and service programs aim to foster in students an understanding of the world and the courage to advance the common good.

Goals: Each young man, upon leaving Saint Peter's Prep, should be open to growth, intellectually competent, religious, loving, and committed to doing justice.

Academics

Saint Peter's Prep offers a college preparatory curriculum that provides a well-balanced course of studies to meet the needs and interests of its students. Each year, a student must take the equivalent of six full-credit courses (six year-long full-credit [1.0 credit] courses or a combination of year-long full-credit courses and semester-long half-credit [.5 credit] courses to equal six credits). With permission, a student may take the equivalent of seven full-credit courses. Full credit classes meet 6 times over an 8-day cycle. Some electives in art, music and writing meet 3 times over an 8-day cycle and carry .25 credit per semester. Religious studies courses at Saint Peter's Prep are full-credit courses that carry the same academic requirements as other full-credit courses.

To graduate, every student must take a minimum of 4 years of religious studies, 4 years of English, 2 years of Latin, 2 years of a modern language, 3 years of history, 3 years of mathematics (4 years strongly recommended), and 2 years of laboratory science (3 to 4 years strongly recommended). He also must take 2 years of health and 3 years of physical education. In addition, he must complete required studies in art, music, and group guidance. Students take electives in history, modern and/or classical languages, science, mathematics, English, art, music theory and composition, music performance, and computer science in grades 10 through 12 to round out their course of studies and fulfill the 26.75 credit requirement for graduation. All students must complete 85 hours of direct contact Christian Service by the end of junior year to advance to senior year.

The following Advanced Placement Courses are offered:
